My mind was so far away,
and I could never say
what I wanted to say to you.
I was living in a lie,
I wasn't living my own life.
The words I spoke, untrue.

And I apologize,
For the things I said to you,
I never meant to make you hurt.
And I apologize,
Cause they were so untrue,
I never meant to make this worse.

Here's the pieces to your heart.
I never meant to make you fall apart.
I know that hearts were broken.
My present different than my past.

Each story different than the last.
My story better off unopened.

And I apologize,
For the things I said to you,
I never meant to make you hurt.
And I apologize,
Cause they were so untrue,
I never meant to make this worse.

My mind was so far away,
and I could never say
what I wanted to say to you.
I was living in a lie,
I wasn't living my own life.
The words I spoke, untrue.
