You'll never know what it's like.
I've given up the fight.
It only takes one from six to make it all end.
You'll never see when I go.
You're not gonna know what to do,
or what to say.

And I'm ready to take the easy way out.
Out of this place, and out of your life.
It won't be long before you forget me now.
It won't be long before you forget I'm gone.

Anywhere but here seems like its the place to be.
Anywhere but here feels like home,
and I've got to get away.
Anywhere but here feels like its the place for me.
Anywhere but here feels like home,
and I've got to get away.

I'll never be ready to leave this place.
I'll never be ready to say goodbye.
I'll never go, I know that I couldn't.
But the thought just crossed my mind.
