"Hey Duece this generation is so unimpressed with Jesus
Christ man I think we outta take a minute to just elevate
Him
Let's just brag on Him real quick, here we go,."

Big "J", big "E", big "S", capital, Big "U", big "S", big "C" capital,
H, R, I, S, T, all capitals,
Figure when you talk about a king that's apropos,
Yeah I never tried to use rap to catapult,
Myself into the forefront, never did it for capital,
I ain't even gon front, cause I been grappling,
With who should get shine, Jesus Christ the "I",
But I'm just an average Joe, Jesus Christ is God,
Rise above the status quo, weeding out the crowd,
Gon a put on a hat and coat it's freezing outside,
In this Go Go world competing for God's Child, that's why,

"See that's why we need the Lord man,
we got all these things competing for our time,
Our attention, our affections, Christ should be premiere above all things, Let's talk about Him some more,."

Big "J", big "E", big "S", period, Big "U", big "S", big "C" period,
H, R, I, S, T, man period,
I know I'm name dropping but Christ is superior,
All-star has no flaws, no faults, no wrongs, no quarks, Christ is alive and if I wasn't a disciple and I wasn't in the bible,
A certain rapper would probably be my idol, of course,
I would be off course, big chains, big things, big dreams,
Extremely divided like split-screens,
Between esteeming the Christ as King of my portion,
Or pushing him out to get things, that's why,

"Now ya'll know I ain't done yet, right? Had to bring a little with me, pastor, father in the faith, (You know how we do) Ambassador(Yeah, let me get this with you)

Big "J", big "E", big "S", (in stereo)
Big "U", big "S", big "C" (in stereo)
H, R, I, S, T, man (in stereo),
You lose when you chose that which is inferior, Imperial King on throne, either love Him or leave Him alone,
But you can't do both, its either/or,
The Lamb or the Lion at war,
Son of Man or the rider on the horse,
Much more than a product in a store (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) Chose ye this day, (The Ambassador) Or see the hand that is writing on the wall
(Da' T.R.U.T.H.) No, He is not common at all, all eyes on Him
(The Ambassador) Hold ya jewels we got a priceless gem, (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) Cause who else could pay the price for sin?
(The Ambassador) Nobody
(Da' T.R.U.T.H.) And build the whole Body like a private gym
(The Ambassador) Nobody
(Da' T.R.U.T.H.) (The Ambassador) Nobody but Him!
(Da' T.R.U.T.H.) He's superman
(The Ambassador) But godly, rightly divided He's Clark
Kent
(The Ambassador) Yeah, He came to save the day why would you trade him to play in a crooked world that is fading away?
(The Ambassador) Candy paint and wood grain decay, (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) OK, Christ will never leave man He came to stay, so, (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) (The Ambassador) Nevermind ballin'He
balls greater,
(Da' T.R.U.T.H.) (The Ambassador) No better time to call Him, He's far greater, (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) (The Ambassador) The planets and the stars, that's his more paper (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) (The Ambassador) In the Father's open book, man, no false data, (Da' T.R.U.T.H.) Read!
