The sigh
The color
Chestnut skin
And ends alone you hide the color
That's inside a hundred rivers
Here divide your heart in two
Just like the land, so many pieces that don't fit
That make a cloth for her to wear
She mends the rip
But you still see the tear

And if you bring to me
You bring in flowers from the scene
Red and blue haze
A purple light
It brings the shadows to the light

And the rain falls down and hits the ground
Make the proper things and you'll find
Like this bird on the scene
[she can]
You can do anything
[she can find]
Like this bird on the scene
[she can do it]
And you'll find
[and you'll find]

The sigh
The color
Chestnut skin
And ends alone you hide the color
That's inside a hundred rivers
Here divide your heart in two
Just like the land, so many pieces that don't fit
But make a cloth for her to wear
She mends the rip
But you still see the tear

And the rain falls down and hits the ground
[she can... she can find]
Make the proper things and you'll find
[she can do it and you'll find]
Like this bird on the scene
[she can]
You can do anything
[she can find]
Like this bird on the scene
[she can do it, and you'll find]
And you'll find

Wait up for me
If I fall behind
Wait up for me

And the rain falls down and hits the ground
[she can... she can find]
Make the proper things and you'll find
[she can do it and you'll find]
Like this bird on the scene
[she can]
You can do anything
[she can find]
Like this bird on the scene
[she can do it, and you'll find]

We can find
We can find
We can do it
And you'll find

Whe can find
We can find
We can do it
And we're fine.
