Here you are now
Fresh from your wounds
Back from the edge of time
In all that you were Stripped to the bone
I thought you'd want to know

When you feel the world is
Crashing all around your feet
Come running along
Into my arms
Breathless
I'll never judge you
I can only love you
Come now
Running along
Into my arms
Breathless

Lay down your guns
Too weak to run
Nothing can harm you here
Your precious heart
Broken and scarred
Somehow you made it through
I only ask that you won't go again

When you feel the world is
Crashing all around your feet
Come running along
Into my arms
Breathless
I'll never judge you
I can only love you
Come now
Running along
Into my arms
Breathless

So glad to see you smiling
So good to hear you laugh

I think that you found you even missed yourself
I'm only asking this cause I think that you should be told
You'll never go again

When you feel the world is
Crashing all around your feet
Come running along
Into my arms
Breathless
I'll never judge you
I can only love you
Come now
Running along
Into my arms
Breathless
