Are you real
Are you real or just a dream
It's been so long I don't know

I can feel
I can feel you with me now
Even though you're far away

And some; are special
Come back racing through your mind
You; are special
Your light, your heat will never die

I was lost
I was lost and I found you
I will know no further love

People move
Come in close and fall away
Your love, you refused to fade, yeah

And some; are special
Come back racing through your mind
You; are special
Your light, your heat will never die
So regretful
How could I ever be so blind?
You are special
I thought I'd never lose my mind

I was pulling far away
You were begging me to stay
And I thought I was losing you
Funny how the opposite was true

You or not
Whole or not
I'd settle for a lie

And some; are special
Come back racing through your mind

You; are special
Your light, your heat will never die
So regretful
How could I ever be so blind?
You are special
I thought I'd never lose my mind
