If you've got a picture of your face,
Could you leave it on your way out the door?
I don't care if it's color or black and white.
I just need something to remember you by.

Oh, before my life (went dim), before my life went dim.
Oh, before my life (went dim), before my life went dim.
No one told me the trouble I was in
Before my life went dim.

I painted half my face all green.
Don't you know I painted half my face blue.
In hopes of showing you, both sides of me,
Both sides of me.
I guess it came down to, don't you love me?
Don't you love me?

Can't this car go any faster?
Can't this car go any faster?
Can't this car go any faster?
Can't this car go, cause I can still see where I am.

Oh, before my life (went dim), before my life went dim.
Oh, before my life (went dim), before my life went dim.
You should've told me the trouble I was in
Before my life went dim.
