Last night I had a crazy dream
'Bout a chick in a black bikini
Ah, she looked so good, she couldn't be real
She must be a magic genie!

But when she disappeared around the corner
All I saw were three doors and the top of her bikini
I made it through the first door, there was a party goin'
on
I asked about the chick but what they said was freaky

(Chorus)Chick-a-boom, chick-a-boom don't ya jes' love
it
Chick-a-boom, chick-a-boom don't you just love it
Chick-a-boom, chick-a-boom don't ya jes' love it
Chick-a-boom, chick-a-boom-boom-boom

I found the bottom part behind the second door
Which took me to Africa, I presume
This really far-out cat was screamin' half crazy
"Whomp-bobba-looba-ba-lomp-bam-boom"
I said "Hey man, cut that jive and tell me where the chick went"
But he looked at me, as spaced as could be
And said these words but I wonder what he meant

(Chorus)

Ah, don't ya jes' love it
Um hmm don't ya jes' love it
Don't ya love it, don't ya love it
Oh yeah, don't ya love it
Don't ya jes' love it now

I opened the third door and there she was
And she whispered so sexy and low ooo!
I tried to do the same and impress her with my style
But why she said this, I'll never know

(Chorus)
