Years ago we were just as one
Livin' in a fairytale
It was like nothing could come in our way
Like our story was too true to fail

But now I'm screaming, sobbing, weeping, waiting here for you
Always looking for your shadow in my nights
Asking eveybody why you run away from me Why love in my life was not made to last

Where are you? In which arms, in which unknown
atmosphere
Where are you? My Lady Where are you? You're not here but I feel you everywhere
Where are you? Where are you? Lady

Daddy said : "Son, you will understand

When you'll be further in your life
That a love story can reach a dead end
And often leaving is better than fights"

But why are so much memories of you filling up my mind
When darkness' falling down on me I fought the demons plaguing, I looked for understanding
And blur is the only thing left to see

Where are you? In which arms, in which unknown
atmosphere
Where are you? My Lady
Where are you? You're not here but I feel you
everywhere
Where are you? Where are you? Lady
