Are you real?
Are you real or just a dream?
It's been so long, I don't know

I can feel
I can feel you with me now
Even though you're far away

An' some are special
Come back racing through your mind
You are special
Your light, your heat will never die

I was lost
I was lost and I found you
I will know no further love

People move
Come in close and fall away
Love, you refuse to fade, yeah

An' some are special
Come back, racing through your mind
You are special
Your light, your heat will never die

So regretful
How could I ever be so blind
You are special
I thought I'd never lose my mind

I was pulling far away
You were begging me to stay
And I thought I was losing you
Funny, how the opposite was true

Yeah, yeah
I would not settle for a lie

Some are special
Come back racing through your mind
You were special

Your light, your heat will never die

So regretful

How could I ever be so blind

You were special

I thought I'd never lose my mind
