Always thought some day you would notice me
More than friends you would see me differently
Then I heard you're so in love with her
And now where I am

I'm crushed, so crushed
'cause I always thought that it would be the two of us
And I'm dying inside
Every time I see you walking hand in hand
It just makes me cry, my tears don't seem to dry
And that's why I'm crushed

Used to be couldn't wait to talk to me
You would tell your secrets you would Share your dreams you would tell me everything
Only wish that I could hold you
Now it's her who gets to be your girl and kiss your lips

I'm crushed, so crushed
'cause I always thought that it would be the two of us
And I'm dying inside
Every time I see you walking hand in hand
It just makes me cry, my tears don't seem to dry
And that's why I'm crushed

I was getting up the nerve to finally tell you all the things I feel for you
Now everything is wrong, the chance is gone
She's come along and ripped my dreams in two

And I'm...
I'm crushed, so crushed
'cause I always thought that it would be the two of us
And I'm dying inside
Every time I see you walking hand in hand
It just makes me cry, my tears don't seem to dry
And that's why I'm crushed
