Now it's time to say goodbye
And I will jump from an aeroplane
I'll dive into the ocean, now
I'm feeling like a stranger to you
When I'm going down with the speed of light

Chorus
Send me an angel with love
I'll climb any mountain for you
And it's a shame, who's to blame
We're guilty all the same

I'll drive my car with a blindfold, over my eyes
I'm feeling like a stranger to you
When I'm driving on in the neonlights

Chorus
Send me....

The dream's alive, for all the times we tried
We can't let it slip away, after all this time
And it's a shame

Chorus
Send me....
