Something in the way she moves
Makes me think of all the things I missed
And something in the way she looks at me
Makes me wanna lay down, open my mouth and get kissed...
Yeah...

And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked
And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked
Now I know why Merry and the boys got (x3) hooked.

Something in the way that she walks
Makes me wanna change the way I think
And something in the way she talks to me
Makes me order up another drink so she can get in my ping
Yeah...

And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked

And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked
Now I know why Merry and the boys got (x3) hooked.

Touch me (x7) like noother
Hold me (x7) like noother
Love me (x7) like noother... like noother...

Something in the way she just is Makes me wonder who the hell I've been
And something in the way we are
Makes me wanna dive down into a brand new sin
Yeah...

And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked
And she looks like I think Jesus would have looked
Now I know why Merry and the boys got (x3) hooked.
Yeah... uuu...
