Just enough to peel it off and hide it in my shoe
Now, who needs the show off?
Did I mention that I smell the way you do?

Don't laugh, I hesitate each time I climb a fence
And who needs to see this?
Who needs the cool pretense?

On and off, you feel it too
On and off, you feel the same way, too
Tell me, are you disappointed, too?

Give yourself half a chance and try to look into the passable reasons
For a distortion of a picture that was you
Cut back on all defense and try to hang it loose
And I'll be there to catch you, I'll be there to catch you

On and off, you feel it too
On and off, you feel the same way too
On and off, you feel it too
On and off, you feel the same way too

Tell me, are you disappointed?
Did I miss a point?
Have I disappointed you?

I need an easy friend to tell me what to do
Now, what if I screw up?
And I didn't even notice it was you?

On and off, you feel it too
On and off, I feel the same way too
On and off, you feel it too
On and off, you feel the same way too
