I feel it around me

I feel like a raindrop

I feel we're all washed out burnt out

I think it's a shame

I feel like we're dying on the needs of the people today

I feel like screaming at the world

I know it's a game called...

INSECURITY

insecure

INSECURITY

inseure

I feel like racing the wind

I feel like I'm flying

I feel that the people that surround me have all been blinded

I think I'll reach down in my soul and pull up what's hiding

It's these things inside of me

I share them with you cause

INSECURITY

insecure

INSECURITY

insecure

and as I tear down my bad habits and you grab it and you throw it out to see if someone tries it and they like it and we run together to figure it out people always standing and we're staring at what we thought was our best game

I feel it around me

I feel like a raindrop

I feel we're all washed out burnt out

I think it's a shame

I feel like we're dying on the needs of the people today

I feel like screaming at the world

I know it's a game called...

INSECURITY

insecure

INSECURITY

insecure

INSECURITY

insecure

INSECURITY

insecure

And as I tear down my bad habits

And you grab them

And you throw it out to see if it is you
