Possession, you've got a hold on me
Possession, possession

I'll meet you in the middle
I'll meet you on the other side
Anytime's the right time
When I'm in your line of fire

Girl, you've got me reachin'
For things that are not there
Won't you tell me, tell me
Is there a chance that you might be fair?

'Cause I need to know the feeling
And I won't let go
Anyway you want me
Honey, you can let me know

Girl, I can't keep dreamin'
Of things I'll never share
Why won't you tell me, tell me
Is there a chance that you might be fair?

Possession, you've got a hold on me
Possession, possession
