(V1)

Well, here I am
With my pride in my hand, all alone
Will I ever understand
The feelings that I need
Take me far from all I read
In those books about your perfect love
So, I'll go on my way
Searching for that perfect day
When my life will become my own
And free my dreams from wrong
And it won't take too long
'Till I find what I'm looking for

(C1)

You fool, you had it all
But you gave it up for somebody else's dream
Wasn't even your own
How cruel to say it's done and walk away
Leavin' all her tender ways far behind

(Repeat Chorus)

Woo, woo
Somebody else's dream...
