how much would you bet
if i tried hard enough i would spontaneously combust i wish i could disappear and run away from all of my fears i think im coming undone babababa da ba ba ba

so stay the night
i promise that i wont bite
cause without you there i dont think, i can close my eyes

how do i end up this way a constant knot in my gut tied with uncertainty and with lust a classic case i suppose a haunted man who cant outrun his ghost its in my skin and my bones bababa da ba ba ba

so stay the night

and now i sing ba ba ba bababababa la la la de da ba ba ba bababababa la la la de da
ba ba ba bababababa la la la de da
