It's not the sex but the relation that ships through ocean.
I'm the raft that floats your safety.

My skin has trouble holding it's own skeleton
One interruption will spill me to the floor
If not Pennsylvania will surely kill us all.
I live by a thread and some days a quilt,
It's taken away to remind myself of the wind that we felt.
Hand out the window.
Breeze pushing up my elbow.

Remember in the rain when I told you to stand up and walk the line
And everything would "Be just fine?"
There was a caption and it should have gone a little something like...
Everything and everyone is taken away
And I feel like my heart can't start beating again.
I want a feature presentation
I'm just a coming attraction.

Remember in the rain when I promised that I'd be there for you?
Lord, I wish I knew...
I'm constellation that burns out on emotion.
Everything and everyone is taken away
And I feel like my heart can't start beating again.
Installation of attraction leaves me with obsession.

Firefighter where are you?
The smoke has choked my escape.
If you're blessed to touch then you're cursed to bleed.

Dear assassin, have compassion at least kill me right,
Give me what I want put me in headlines.
Classical professional don't treat me the same
I expect more from you, smear my blood on the page.
I had the brightest color red that you've ever seen
Everytime you color I hope that you think of me
Will you carve a note deep inside my back reading
"Sorry, I hope you remember that."

My name was once Joseph, you ended me. [x3]
