broken, by now my mind has broken free gears seize in blasphemy i turn to shamed inconsistencies laid low, i'm alone not the man i'd grown to be fell short, my mark empty man, no plans from the start picked a man whose broken on the inside wish a sweet ride to the other side and for all my short comings life cut through me, i'm empty inside a broken man broke inside by now I'm falling burnt empty in misery look no further down empty roads broken glass my only option senseless, drop out, insert kill fuck die, become god dead blind men can't see full of ambition, full of contrition full of ambition, full of shit... full on full of fucking shit
