the walls we face oppressed in every way the life i thought to be collides with yesterday well i thought I'd be the man to be a man who's will to fight alone, alone for you and me

i know fooled conviction i know fooled on fools lies fooled by a false conviction fooled by it's fallacy fooled by the conman smiling fooled by the sad mans casualty full on feel my rage the cause of war re-engaged inner fear lost in my hate step to embrace pain

follow me in your cage
can't you feel my rage engage carve lines of conviction poison fantasy

sweet rails toxicity crawling oblivion did i fail to mention... your oblivion the problems conviction is following you total amnesia will never free you well i failed to mention you're hung
