take a look at all the sheep grazing take a look at yourself, you're crazy take for granted that you'll always have solutions take for granted in your own delusion

i thought i had everything i wanted i saw first hand, a life adjusted compromised and poliltized watch us all fall from the sky all fall in line

i saw first hand, the errors i have entrusted follow the reason it's open season

look to me for guidance, what a joke?
if life was so perfect, no hope no hope

mindless and grazing complacent and lazy

if you think for a moment our world, contained? media draws blood, blood on our culture be let be fail and link the chain be the fool and fall in line stand alone and be yourself for once fuck you average whore! fucked... fucked average whore!
