This one's for you
This one's for me
This one's for you
What must I be?
I've got a nervous feeling, over you
I got someone to love me, oh so true
But who am I fooling, I like airline food

I need to feel hope, I need to feel young again
I need to be bold, start using my tongue again
They can laugh as I cry, They can cut 'til I bleed
I ain't losing, 'cause this one's for me

This one's for you
This one's for me
This one's for you

Tell me what the fuck must I be for you
Tell me what must I be for you?
I've got a nervous feeling over you
I've got someone to love me, oh so true
I've got someone who loves me, oh so true

But I need to feel hope, I need to feel young again
And I need to be bold, start using my tongue again
They can laugh as I cry, they can cut 'til I bleed
I ain't losing, 'cause this one's for me
