so whaddid you do while i was away did you fight the feeling every night did you make it through the day it never crossed your mind that i was afraid of everything that you said you wouldn't do but you never had guts to face please put a coin in and listen to a song from the jukebox of my soul you won't believe me but i got to let it all out from my dirty soul radio she's turnin' tricks on the highway she thinks she's on her way to money and fame baby dontcha look me in the eye and dontcha make me draw the line when you're alone and it's cold in the street remember my name and do the walk of shame so come on radio

come on and let it all out
'cos i'm here to listen
