I come back to you in daylight
I come back to you unarmed
I come back to you so fragile
I never knew I could

I'm learning new ways to communicate
I'm learning new ways to live
I'm learning new ways to apologize
For all the things I did

Refrain:
Libertine, don't cry
Been begging for this for so long
Libertine, don't try
You knew it all along

Take me under your wings
And places on this cold world
Show me your better way to live
'Cause I can't do it on my own
But I need to change

When tomorrow seems so far away
Old habits raise their head

When that feeling kicks in
Oh, can I be prepared

You know they sung 'bout eve of destruction
The stories we've been told
You know we're running for the details
When all the lies are sold

Refrain

Take me under your wings
And places on this cold world
Show me your better way to live
'Cause I can't do this on my own

Take me under your wings
And places on this cold world

Show me your better way to live
(2x)

Refrain

'Cause I can't do this on my own
But I need to change
