this song is for the quality people who wear a suit and a tie i'm so tired of quality people please just go home and cry hey all you better people now look what you've done you bloodsuckers left nothing for me and you say you make the money go round high standard of living high quality car

a beautiful housewife two kids and a dog i just don't want to know aboutcha listen up, here's my confession i can see some of it in myself sometimes i feel like i'm under pressure to be just like everyone else everything is so easy everything is so great you get everything served on a silver plate you're just makin' me feel so.. oh oh yeah
