

Damnation A.D. "A Second Face"

Visit "A Second Face" on MotoLyrics.com

Living in a dream state never admitting to this second face spewing his venom with a vengeance such hate filled words flow with ease only needing attention of the elders screams of rage are ignored taken away by misunderstanding anger lights his world having to accept the blame my head hangs in shame thoughts of the past breaks my heart like shattered glass my only hope lies in forgiveness but apology is my weakness left standing with open arms left empty with bleeding scars
