Shadows fall in the places we used to play

My toys have all been packed away

The rocking horse rocks in it's box

A spinning top and Corporal Clott

Are a dusty lot

Many times I said I'd drop you a line

I guess I'm just a rotten swine

Who takes his time

And walks for fun when she should run

The damaged one is you old chum
(chorus)

Who's the sucker now (x2)

Could someone she'd some light on this love affair

Ans help to make me quite aware

Of what is meant by wicked thoughts

That have been sent

My memory is empty
(chorus)

Its too late now there's no time

The truth is locked in my mind

To wonder and look in my eyes

(chorus)
