Girl why are you crawlin' up somebody else's tree
What can that boy teach you that you haven't learned from me?
I don't care if you've been around the block or how many hearts you break
One things for certain girl you're makin a big mistake

You better come back baby, you better come back baby Cause no one in the world's gonna love you girl like I do

Down on the corner I've been hearin' that we're through They say we're nothin' but a thing for a minute or two But nobody knows the love we made, there's reason to be alarmed
When the lites go down tonite, you're gonna be missin' my arms

You better come back baby...
