Sister I'm needin' you now
There is something you can help me find I can't feel the words on my tounge, but they're on my mind

Lonely is the autumn wind
As it plays a song I used to know
I hide behind my innocent lies, in my one man show

Your love is so high, even god couldn't begin to kiss it's sky

Let it go release my pain
Let it go Let your love be rain for me
Let it go release your pain
Let it go Let my love be rain for you

Sister is it too late for me
You can tell me with a touch of your hand Warm me with your faith & give me a hope to understand

Your love is so thick, even god gouldn't put his arms around it

Let it go release my pain
Let it go Let your love be rain for me
Let it go release your pain
Let it go Let my love be rain for you
Let it go Let your love be rain for me Let it go.
