Lover, Don't betray me
If you hold our secrets close you can always play with me
Silence, You've heard it before
In the silence you'll feel my love
Travellin through your open door

Baby let's run away, Take it day by day..

Lover, There's plenty of lovin' in this here man...

Lover, Lonely from the lies
See a river filled with pain, runnin' thru your bedroom eyes
Violence, such a waste of time
Come on baby run into my arms
Deliver you from the violent times

Baby let's run away, We'll take it day by day

Lover...

To me a woman's soul is like a mirror,
Where you look into it a man has no fear
I would never break what keeps us whole
A woman like you I could never let go...
