People in the powerhouse, summit all night
The take the promo pictures & pretend that they're tite Why don't they cross the millions of miles within that empty room
Avoiding the questions, a political honeymoon

I got more than you today, you got more than me tomorrow
It's a crazy mixed up world, full of mislead sorrow.
We don't want your sympathy... we need some kinda lover to set the world free

And so we Slam, Slam, Slam!!!
Slam it all down!

Step up to the future -- do you wanna see inside?
A colorblind society.. a totally different ride
There's something blockin' the road we must take
We need love as a weapon to make the wall break

And so we Slam, Slam, Slam!!!
Slam it all Down!
