Well I'm tired of hearing your low down lies
And your running around on me
So just go ahead and get you a brand new man Cause you done, got the best out of me

If your love is all that I get then I'm gettin' mighty thin I ain't taking you back not one more time cause this time I'm gonna win

So don't give me your lies just go ahead and cry
I ain't takin' you back no more

There's just so much that a man can take and I've taken all I can So you better be ready when you get home cause it's all gonna hit the fan It's time to pay up and I'm your cashier so step into the check out line
I'm checkin' you out and I'm checkin' in to a brand new life this time

So don't give me your lies just go ahead and cry
I ain't takin' you back no more

Well you ride me like a pony every day but you ride me hard and put me up wet I'm about as low as a snake can go and that's about as low as it gets I'm tired of the sadle and the sadle is sore and the spurs dig into too deep So goodbye so long ain't doing me wrong it's time to get a good night's sleep

So don't give me your lies just go ahead and cry
I ain't takin' you back no more X2
