Where I'm bound nobody knows
Ain't got nothing but my clothes
Best if I forget the way I'm ridin'

Heading down a one way track
Wind is cold upon my back
Rumbling of this old steel rail don't die

Wheels!

Playing games I could not win
Always ending up again
Change of scenery just might help this time

Watching daylight turn to black
Long since I smoked up my last Mac
Dreamed of one day gettin' off this line

Wheels!

Saw them come and saw them go
Saw them frozen from the cold
When I'm getting off myself I don't know
