"Moonlit Town"

The sun is gone now, stoves are on now
Outside there's silver on the ground
In a moonlit town

Into November, we'll all remember
Halloween was jumping like a hound
In a moonlit town

Potatoes were baking
Everyone was making
Costumes out of crazy things they found
Make it, in a moonlit town

Summer's long days
Have gone their own ways
Around the world
They'll be back again

On a Fall night
Everything is all right
Dressed up on the street out with your friends

There was parading, and masquerading
Did you wear the crown or play the clown
In a moonlit town

Everybody talking, laughing and walking
Slowly block to block they make the rounds
All around a moonlit town

Greens are gold now
Nights are cold now
Soon there will be snow out in the wind

On a Fall night
Everything is all right
Dressed up on the street out with your friends

Wherever you're from
Know that you're welcome
If you want to bring your family Åçâ, -Ëœeround

To this moonlit town Thanks to thudord
