Tonight, tonight's gonna be the last time I'll try
I'll try to get by
Maybe tonight if it goes just right
I started with the bottle bottoms up
I'm out of luck
Hope was its best friend
Left them at the top
Cold hands in coat pockets
Clenching my daughter's locket
What would she think of her daddy now?
All you need is love
All you need is love

A little love, a little love is all it takes
A little love, a little love
It's never too late, yeah
A little love, a little love and faith
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Shove the papers into the case
I'm heading home 'cause the
The hands just struck eight
And on and on it goes
I'm tired of this repetition (tired of this repetition)
The over and over
And not getting closer
To where I want to go

And they say
All you need is luck
But no, all you need is love
A little love, a little love is all it takes
A little love, a little love
It's never too late, yeah
A little love, a little love and faith
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

A little love, a little love is all it takes
A little love, a little love
It's never too late

A little love, a little love is all it takes
A little love, a little love
It's never too late
A little love, a little love and faith
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

A little love, a little love
Yeah
