Do you ever feel like you're the last one on this earth
I could yell at the top of my lungs and nobody would hear a word

One in a million, still I'm on my own
And I'm tired of calling when nobody comes
And I'm falling to pieces and the cracks are showing Think I'm running out of borrowed time

[Chorus]

You may think you're on your own
But know you're not alone
We'll stand as one, won't let you go
Yeah, know you're not alone, hey

Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa

[Chorus]

Yeah, you may think you're on your own
But know you're not alone
We'll stand as one, won't let you go
Yeah, know you're not alone

Staying up for days at a time, just working hard to keep me afloat

And I'd been holding on so damn tight when I just needed to let go

One in a million, but I'm not alone
'Cause I'm starting to understand where I went wrong
And I'm feeling better than I've ever known
No more running from where I belong

[Chorus]

You may think you're on your own
But know you're not alone
We'll stand as one, won't let you go
Yeah, know you're not alone, hey

Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa

[Chorus]

Yeah, you may think you're on your own
But know you're not alone
We'll stand as one, won't let you go
Yeah, know you're not alone

I know that you may feel like people have let you down
This world is hard to conquer and harder to figure out, yeah

Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Know you're not alone
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Know you're not alone

[Chorus]

You may think you're on your own
But know you're not alone
We'll stand as one, won't let you go
Yeah, know you're not alone, hey

Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Know you're not alone
Oh, whoa, oh, whoa
Know you're not alone
