How did you get so big?
Did you eat too much?
Did you bite off more than you could prove?
So hollywood,
You're riding with the stars
And all the regulars now
Just who you are
I've got the biggest heart
You've ever torn apart
You fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
How did you get so drunk?
I guess you had enough
You swallowed more than we all knew
So many friends
Only hold you when you got dreams for them
To sink their teeth into
But it don't mean a lot when you talk about
You fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
Fooled with the wrong guy
