Got a song prettier than your girlfriend
I got a song, yeah it's cooler than you
You're just so hip, you open the gates of heaven
Being cool, is that all that you do?

You're waiting for something
What it is, well you don't know
You say that you want it real bad
And that's all you're really sure of

You got first dibs on second hand clothing
Seven inches yeah it gets so hard
Keeping up with Kitchcock fortunes
All you do is play is the thrift shop blues

I'm waiting for something
What it is, well I don't know
I say that you want it real bad
And that's all I'm really sure of

I'm just a clown
Come laugh at me
Yeah just hang around
Let me rust with you awhile
Paint me up and give me a smile
Just for a little while
