Thinking about what has passed
What went wrong through these hands
Cold sets high
To this day light lust
This is when it hits you
I have your melody

Take it all back
Breath has gone what is sinking from your inside
For underneath where there is golden song
Does the warning sign bring us back to your melody

Bring you back
Bring you back
Bring you back
Bring you back

And you're cold
And you're late
It's a hole in your fate
Is this common a mistake
There's no breath you can fake
A big hole in your phrase
And no frame for your gaze
And you're frozen
And you're frozen
And you're frozen

Thinking about what has passed
What went wrong in these hands
Cold sets high

It's daylight lost
Is it you found wandering lust
This is when it hits you
I have lost your melody

It's a humm that's waiting for you
It's a humm that I can make of you
Into melody
It's a humm way to excuse you
It's a humm that i can make for you

It's your melody

And you're cold
And you're late
It's a hole in your fate
Is this common a mistake
There's no breath you can fake
A big hole in your phrase
And no frame for your gaze
And you're frozen
And you're frozen
And you're frozen

Make another note for reading
Make another note for breathing
It's a cold day
When you call me
It's a cold day
