Thinking thinking you may never be the thing that I would ever get
I won't forget it
You could be asking me things that I may never ever ever will regret
I may regret it
But you make me think that I may get you
If I never ever ever try to find it There's no divining
But I can't be the one to heed you if you never ever let me go inside
You would divide me

I go on thinking
I would be sinking
It's just my reason that will not reason
But if you get
I won't forget it
If you get it
You won't regret it

You maybe think that I could be the thing that you would never
I wouldn't forget
Don't you forget it I may be asking you to be the things that you could never be out of regret
I won't regret it

I was thinking you could be Ohhh I was thinking you would be

You could be the one

Think that I could be the thing that you could be I would forget
You may be asking me to be the things that I could never be out of regret

Think that I could be the things that you could never be out of respect

Sinking sinking into reason now that I have you left out of this sight Still right beside it
It seems the asking you was never ever ever gonna be a part of good bye
If I had tried it Still I will sink for you into the depths of being that have taken over my sight
I don't deny this
You are the sink that I will think forever never has no end to my delight
I don't deny it

I go on thinking I could be sinking
It's just my reason that will not reason
But if you get
I won't forget it
If you get it
I won't regret it
You maybe think that I could be the things that you could never be out of respect
I won't regret
never be out of respect
I won't forget it

I was thinking you could be
