You got the love
you got the need
I got so wild I wanna be free
You made me tingle
you made me itch
You've just got to be the grooviest witch.

Cause you've got me in your love spell
woman
woman
You got me in your love spell
Got me in your love spell
woman
woman
You got me in your love spell.

Each time you walked in through the door
I turned into a heap on the floor
You melted me quicker than quick That just had to be your grooviest trick.

Cause you've got me in your love spell
woman
woman . .

First you're the sun then you're a star I don't even care to think what you are You bring the fire you bring the rain Even got the cure for easing my pain.

Cause you've got me in your love spell
woman
woman . .

Got me in your love spell
woman
woman
You got me in your love spell
You got me in your love spell
woman

You got

you got
you got me in your love spell.
