I see your face in everyone I meet
And I can still smell your smell from across the street
And though you remind me of other girls
You were the only one in my world

And it's...
Oh so scary
Ordinary
Things seem to change
For the worse at 24
I'm not a boy anymore

And if I only knew what to do
Then maybe I would mean more than what's underneath
Your shoe

I swear, swear, I really miss your friends
Can't someone please wake me up?
Let me start live nÂ´ stop pretend

Cause this shit is...

Oh so scary
Ordinary
Things seem to change
For the worse at 24

I'm not a boy anymore

Oh so scary
Ordinary
Things seem to change
For the worse at 24

I'm not a boy anymore
