it's a different kind of love with you by my side it's a different kind of life, cause we are fucking all the time and i'm never feeling bored even though you're far away
you make me a believer with the words that you say

'cause she rules the school my baby she rules the school
'cause she rules the school and when i'm feeling bored, she brings me up she tells me that she likes me, and that she never stops and then she gives me head, she does it without shame she tells me that she likes it, and could do it over and over again...

'cause she rules the school
my baby she rules the school
'cause she rules the school

it's a different kind of love with you by my side
it's a different kind of life, cause we are fucking all the
time

'cause she rules the school
my baby she rules the school
'cause she rules the school
my baby she rules the school (come on up and stay a little longer)
'cause she rules the school
(come on up and stay a little longer)
my baby she rules the school
(come on up and stay a little longer)
'cause she rules the school
(come on up and stay a little longer)
my baby she rules the school

(come on up and stay a little longer)
'cause she rules the school
(come on up and stay a little longer)
