There was a giraffe in my loft and I didn't invite it
He was stomping 'round for days and kept me up all night
Giraffe in my loft
A giraffe in my loft

I kicked him out, he seemed okay
The roof space was right low anyway
Within an hour it snuck back in
And his elephant friends had come with him

Giraffe in my loft
With that long neck he stuffed
Wears my chimney for a scarf
Oh, giraffe you're having a laugh!
