Forgive me Lord
For holding on to what's already Yours
I need Your help
Cause you know me better than
I know myself
And You reign over heavy hearts
And You reign over earth and stars

So won't You reign
Reign in my life
I've tried to hold on but I've fallen
So won't You reign
Reign in my heart
Fill all the spaces I've not given
Here on this day
I surrender my will
Here as I pray
If only You will
Lord Reign

Come lead the way
And give grace to follow every step that You take
I'm in Your hands
And your plans are greater than I could conceive
'Cause You reign over heavy hearts
And You reign over earth and stars
Don't let me take it all back from You
When I want to
Please keep me hanging on to what's true
That I need You...
To reign
