I don't know what you'd want me to say
It's a cold one and the snow's going to stay
I picked the part when you were away
To think of all the things I should say

It's time to move
Cause it's now or never Got nothing to loose
Don't know what's come over

In all honesty
You seem like a dream
That I don't want to leave

So glad to see you made it
So glad you changed your mind
So glad to see you smiling
So far we're doing fine

The invitation came with the joke
You sneezed at it but you didn't choke
You found yourself something to wear
I met you at the top of your stairs

Conversation time
Date is almost over
Don't know where to go
But I'm feeling bolder

In all honesty
You seem like a dream
That I don't want to leave

So glad to see you made it
So glad you changed your mind
So glad to see you smiling
So far we're doing fine

So glad to see you made it
So glad you're here tonight
So glad to see you smiling
Let's take it slowly, we're doing fine

'Cause I don't want to lead my heart through
Another broken street that ends with you
And I don't want have to pay my dues
I just want to find someone true

I don't know what you'd want me to say
It's a cold night and the stars are awake
We looked up past the top of moon
That's when you kissed me not a moment too soon

So glad to see you made it
So glad you changed your mind
So glad to see you smiling
So far we're doing fine

'Cause I don't want to lead my heart through
Like you
