Born to live a life to die
Oh, it's a funny thing
It's a funny thing

And sail away when the night turns to day
No, don't come back again
I won't come back again

Will you let me start?
That's the hardest part

And don't be late
Place your heart on a plate
It's time you fed yourself
It's time you fed yourself

So start a fight breaking bottles in the night
Oh, don't fear anything

Don't fear anything

Will you let me in to begin?

Born to live a life to die
Oh, it's a funny thing
It's a funny thing

And sail away when the night turns to day
No, don't come back again
I won't come back again

Will you let me start?
That's the hardest part
Will you let me in to begin?

Born to live a life to die
Oh, it's a funny thing
It's a funny thing
