When I was young I thought I knew the world
Oh, I'm still young but I feel much older now

And then you told me you were leaving, oh now
You picked up your feet and walked right out the door

Well you had me sad
(I thought you should know)
You had me crying

Well I felt so bad
(I guess now you know)
And no, I aint lying

So goodbye baby, I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun
Goodbye baby, I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun

When I was young I thought I found myself
Now that I'm older, I'm searching once again
And then you told me I was going nowhere, oh no
So I packed up my bags and went to look some more

Well you had me sad
(I thought you should know)
You had me crying

Well I felt so bad
(I guess now you know)
And no, I aint lying

So goodbye baby, I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun
Goodbye baby, I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun
I said goodbye baby, I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun
Yeah, I said goodbye baby I hope you had fun
Hope you had fun
