What's wrong with me?
Sometimes I just can't breathe
Sometimes I can't even sleep
And I fall way too deep

Oh, what's wrong with me?
Sometimes I can't even see
Sometimes my legs shake
And I feel like my heart'll break

I don't always understand what's going on inside
But I do believe that anything can be achieved
Oh, maybe it's because I'm trying way too hard
To be someone I'm not
Instead of concentrating on the shit I've really got

Oh, what's wrong with me?
Sometimes I loose the touch
Sometimes I don't even care
And sometimes I care too much

Oh, what's wrong with me?
Sometimes I'm all but free
Sometimes I feel like drinking
Like the times I feel like sinking

I don't always understand...

Oh, sometimes I dwell in darkness
And I blame myself for all the wrong's
And when everything's a total mess
I escape to simple songs
But at times I fear the song will end
And what's inside will never ever mend

I don't always understand...
